Aglow in Australia forms part of the global network of Aglow International which embraces thousands of women and men from over 170 nations serving people across the globe.

Kerry-Ellen is a prominent speaker, acclaimed and respected by church leaders across the Body of Christ locally and nationally. She is National Leader of Aglow in Australia, Member of the Aglow South Pacific Region Committee and sits on the Aglow International Board of Directors.

Kerry-Ellen's heart cry is to see the lame, broken and cast down, healed restored and set free, holding especially dear the indigenous women of Australia and Torres Straight Islands and those in remote and isolated areas. It was a very special milestone when the first indigenous Aglow Branch was affiliated in 2010 on Palm Island.

Her anointing as National Leader is to preach and teach reconciliation of men and women drawing them into fullness in the Holy Spirit and God's intentionality for the positioning of men and women in Aglow for His kingdom purposes.

Kerry-Ellen is a passionate woman of the Spirit; sensitive to His voice and obedient to His call. She and husband Brian and family reside in Perth, Western Australia.
